

WEEK FIVE

VARSIITY A

Player of the Week: Lizzie Cohen, Overlake

Tuesday April 9th, 2007

Bainbridge at North Kitsap

North Kitsap, still looking for their first win, falls to Bainbridge 21-4.

Natalie Evans rocketed in six goals and added three assists in Bainbridge's win over North Kitsap, while teammate Lucy Shlessler netted five goals and two assists and Sarah Shea put in 4 goals along with two assists. Mariah Walk dominated the draw with seven in addition to two goals and two assists, and Sally Baumgartner added a goal and two assists to her five draw controls. Erin Gulbranson forced three turnovers in her defensive effort. Shea and Walk led the ground ball race with six a piece.

No statistics currently available for North Kitsap.

Wednesday April 11th, 2007

Overlake at Bainbridge

In back to back victories, Bainbridge beat Overlake 19-4.

Natalie Evans led the pack again with five goals and two assists in addition to leading defensively with four caused turnovers. Lucy Schlessler, Mary Vasta, Mariah Walk and Sydney Whitaker each netted two goals to add the Islander scoreboard. Walk also controlled five draws, while Libby Van Dyke dug up six.

Overlake's Allison Havran scored two of her team's goals, while Kate Stinson and Lizzie Cohen each put in one. Defensive leaders Carla Frank and Linnea Xuereb forced three turnovers each. Xuereb also led her team in ground balls with four.

Friday April 13th, 2007

Overlake at North Kitsap

In the game of the week, both Overlake and North Kitsap searched for victory after each team suffered an immense loss to Bainbridge. The close battle between the two ended as Overlake prevailed 8-6.

This truly was a ground ball game as Overlake's team dug up a combined fifty-four ground balls. Lizzie Cohen was the ground ball machine, digging up twelve to add to her two goals and one assist, while teammate Kate Stinson made two's across the board with two goals, two assists, two draws, two turnovers and two ground balls! Emily Warden contributed a goal and an assist, and Allison Havran, Alex MacKenzie and Alyssa Wright each netted one. Wright also dug up seven ground balls and added two turnovers along with Carla Frank and Linnea Xuereb.

No statistics currently available for North Kitsap.

VARSIITY B

Player of the Week: Danielle Bergquist, Snohomish

Wednesday April 11th, 2007

Snohomish at Bainbridge

In the only Varsity B game of the week, Snohomish dominated Bainbridge 12-4.

Snohomish goalie Danielle Bergquist saved the day with 20 saves for an overall save percentage of 83%. Mikaela Trott and Natalie Siderious helped out on attack with three goals each, while Sayre Creighton added two and an assist. Single goals were netted by Jen Courtney, Haliegh Fosth, Calista Kline and Hannah Whipple. Trott, Kline and Creighton each contributed an assist along with Sarah Courtney and Danielle Bergquist. Hannah Price dominated defensively with three draw controls, five forced turnovers and seven ground balls. Ally Schmitt added four more turnovers and Creighton three, with five ground balls.

No statistics currently available for Bainbridge.